Overview

Chris Haboian is an attorney in our Real Estate practice group. He concentrates his practice on commercial real estate transactions, including the buying and selling of property, developing and redeveloping property, financing, and leasing both retail and office. He represents developers, private equity companies, REITs, management companies and high-net-worth investors in all aspects of commercial real estate transactions, ensuring that his clients are positioned for success through the process, from beginning to end. Prior to joining Jaffe, Chris worked in the business side of transactions as an in-house attorney at The Cordish Companies, an international real estate developer in Baltimore, MD.
