Overview

Bill Sider is an attorney in our Tax practice group. He is a member of our Board of Directors and immediate past CEO of our firm. Bill concentrates his practice on tax structuring and implementing sophisticated transactions on behalf of our diverse client base, including private equity firms, venture capitalists, REITs, private foundations, and entrepreneurs. His expertise is in tax issues arising from merger and acquisition transactions, debt restructurings, real estate ventures, and wealth transfer strategies. Bill has written and lectured extensively on a variety of tax topics, including equity incentives, real estate workouts, limited liability companies, REITs, and angel investment strategies. He works closely with attorneys throughout our practice groups to develop innovative solutions and address tax consequences before they arise.
