JOSH WILLIAMS is an associate in the Complex Litigation Practice Group at Raines Feldman. Before joining RF, he worked at a Los Angeles area firm where he defended attorneys against legal malpractice suits.

Josh received his J.D. from U.S.C. Gould School of Law. As a student, he was a clerk with the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office of General Counsel, Executive Articles Editor and Author for USC's Business Law Advisor, and a Saks Institute Scholar.

You can catch Josh giving a hearty Fight On! at Trojan home games on the weekends. Otherwise, you can find him writing, hiking Hollywood and Malibu trails, fighting for LGBTQ rights, or reading somewhere on a beach.
