Nathaniel M. Carle, counsel at Raines Feldman LLP, is an experienced litigator focusing on commercial and business disputes in both state and federal courts as well as private arbitration and mediation. He has extensive experience with electronic discovery tools and best practices. Nathan prioritizes efficient case assessment, management, and resolution in order to serve clients' interests without unnecessary cost or delay. By taking advantage of technology and years of experience, he is able to litigate against significantly larger and more expensive firms that are resistant to legal innovation and that rely heavily on large teams of junior attorneys. Nathan started his career at Sullivan & Cromwell and Linklaters in New York.

If you are or may become involved in a civil legal dispute, contact Nathan to discuss how he can be of assistance.
