STEVEN SCHMULENSON is an associate in the corporate department focusing on corporate finance and securities, mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance. Steven has extensive experience representing corporate clients in a broad array of industries and investment banks in corporate financing and M&A transactions and has often worked on cross-border transactions. He has also advised public company clients on corporate governance matters and filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Prior to joining Raines Feldman LLP, Steven was an attorney at a prominent, international law firm where he worked in the firm's London and San Diego offices and advised clients from California, Europe, Latin America and the Middle East. In 2016, he was part of a team that advised the issuer in Latin America's largest equity offering of that year.

Steven is an avid reader, a world traveler and is passionate about animals and the environment. He is the proud owner of a rescue dog whom he takes to the beach and on hikes whenever he gets the chance.
