About Mr. Weeg

Christopher Weeg is an attorney and a CPA with a focus on tax and estate planning. His law practice includes drafting wills and trusts; advising on income, gift, estate, and GST tax issues; forming business and nonprofit entities; and probating estates. Chris is experienced in the preparation of gift and estate tax returns, representation of executors in all phases of estate administration, and creating comprehensive estate plans tailored to meet clients' personal objectives in a tax efficient manner.

Chris's business planning practice includes counseling clients with respect to the establishment, reorganization, operation, and tax reporting requirements of their business and related transactions. A primary emphasis of business planning is placed on the transfer of business interests to family members in the most tax efficient manner, thereby providing the second (or third) generation with the best change of family business continuity.

As a triple Gator, Chris graduated from the University of Florida with an accounting degree, a J.D., and an LL.M. in taxation. While in law school, Chris was a member of the Law Review and inducted into the Order of the Coif. Chris earned Book Awards for the highest grade in the following courses: Income Taxation, Corporate Taxation, Partnership Taxation, Taxation of Gratuitous Transfers, Advanced Estates & Trusts, and Tax Moot Court.

Chris worked at a tax boutique law firm in Dallas before joining Comiter Singer. Prior to law school, he worked as a CPA in the tax department of a public accounting firm in West Palm Beach.

Chris is admitted to practice law in Florida and Texas, and is a licensed CPA in Florida.

How Long Can an Estate be a Shareholder in an S-Corp?

🕒 Sep 20th, by Comiter, Singer, Baseman & Braun

An S-Corp is a type of corporation that allows shareholders to enjoy the typical benefits of incorporation along with the benefits of "pass-through" taxation, which means that the corporation itself is not taxed, and shareholders are instead taxed at the personal income level. In other words, the shareholders are not [...]

About Transferring S-Corp Shares to a Trust in Florida

🕒 Sep 10th, by Comiter, Singer, Baseman & Braun

The Internal Revenue Service defines an S-Corp as a "corporation that elects to pass corporate income, losses, deductions, and credits through to their shareholders for federal tax purposes. Shareholders of S-Corps report the flow-through of income and losses on their personal tax returns and are assessed tax at their individual [...]

Florida Law Does Not Enforce No Contest Clauses

🕒 Aug 02nd, by Brian M. Spiro

No contest clauses in Florida wills are unenforceable. Frequently, no contest clauses are referred to as in terrorem clauses. Historically, many lawyers would draft wills with no contest clauses in order to discourage individuals from challenging the wills. A typical no contest clause would state that if a beneficiary under [...]
