Aisha Hall Joins Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss, P.C.

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., July 22, 2021 — Aisha Hall has joined the Southfield office of Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss, P.C. as an associate in the electronic payments practice group. Jaffe CEO Jeffrey M. Weiss made the announcement.

Hall has a specialized background in payments and regulation as well as a deep understanding of auditing and research. She has represented national clients and performed high-ranking services surrounding legal writing, analysis of raw ACH data, cyber and criminal research and regulatory compliance auditing. Legal issues Hall has managed include credit and debit card processing, merchant acquiring, money transmission, prepaid access, mobile payment, ACH and payment facilitation.

Hall has been recognized as an accredited ACH professional. Throughout her previous roles, Hall developed an understanding of industry-specific representation and honed her skills in counseling clients on risk mitigation, problem solving and taking advantage of strategic opportunities. She graduated with honors from Birmingham-Southern College and later received a Juris Doctor from the University of Alabama School of Law.
