COVID-19 and Payment Processing Contracts

A variety of important provisions in contracts for payment services are being significantly impacted by COVID-19. If you are concerned about a party's ability to meet the obligations of an agreement – your own or the other side's — it is important to evaluate those terms and conditions carefully to determine if and how the virus may be impacting them. Our update provides useful information and important suggestions on negotiating and managing payment services contracts during this challenging time.
