

News

Subscribe To News

Email Address *

SUBSCRIBE!

Search Posts

Categories

▸ Webinars & Podcasts

▸ Jaffe Updates

▸ News

▸ Electronic Payments Law +

▸ Michigan Green Law +

▸ Data Privacy Law +

▸ Immigration Law +

Download PDF

NOVEMBER 30, 2020

Kelley Donnelly, Milan Spampinato and Joshua Muhleck Join Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss, P.C.

SOUTHFIELD, Mich., Nov. 30, 2020 — Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss, P.C. has welcomed three associates to its Southfield office; Kelley Donnelly as an associate in the firm's litigation practice group, Milan Spampinato as an associate in litigation and adjunct in the insolvency practice group and Joshua Muhleck as an associate in the firm's insolvency practice group. Jaffe CEO Jeffrey M. Weiss made the announcement.

Prior to joining Jaffe, Donnelly worked most recent as a law clerk at Garmo & Kiste. In her position at Garmo & Kiste, she worked on a variety of cases ranging from family law litigation to contract disputes. In her new role at Jaffe, Donnelly will be focusing on business-driven litigation following a practical, client-centric approach. She earned her J.D. from Wayne State University Law School and a Bachelor of Public Affairs from Wayne State University.

Spampinato has been working in the legal field since 2015, starting as a legal clerk at Reid and Reid Law Offices followed by clerking with the Oakland County Probate Court. Spampinato continued to work as a legal intern for Chief Judge Scott W. Dales in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Michigan. Most recently, Spampinato worked as a legal clerk at Thrun Law Firm, P.C. At Thrun, Spampinato specialized in various educational legal matters, including child protection laws and school bond qualifications. Spampinato earned her J.D. from Michigan State University College of Law, magna cum laude and a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from Michigan State University, summa cum laude.

Muhleck previously worked at Khurana Law Firm as a law clerk. His responsibilities included drafting litigation documents for personal injury cases and analyzing legal procedures pertaining to Michigan's No-Fault law. He has volunteered at Camp Quality Michigan, where he spends one week each summer serving as a camp companion for children battling cancer or in cancer remission. At Jaffe, Muhleck will join one of the largest and most respected insolvency and reorganization practice groups in the Midwest. He earned his J.D. from Wayne State University Law School and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science & Spanish from the University of Michigan.

For more information, visit www.jaffelaw.com.

About Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss

Michigan-based Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss, P.C. is full-service business law firm representing and advising entrepreneurs and businesses nationwide. Focused on results, invested in relationships and driven by opportunity, Jaffe has over 110 attorneys in its Southfield, Detroit and Naples offices.

Among the Firm's practice areas are appellate, aviation & aerospace, electronic payments law, emerging & growth business, employment & labor, environmental law, estate & wealth planning, executive compensation & employee benefits, family law, finance, first amendment & media law, franchising, immigration, impact investing & social enterprise, insolvency & reorganization, insurance, intellectual property & information technology, litigation & dispute resolution, mergers & acquisitions, privacy & data security, real estate, securities & corporate governance, securities litigation & enforcement defense, tax, and white collar criminal defense.

SHARE THIS