Overview

Elizabeth Rogers is an attorney in our Real Estate practice group with extensive experience in driving complex transactions for international and national companies and closely held businesses. She has a substantial background in real estate, business and general civil litigation matters, and advises her clients in matters involving multi-million dollar, multi-state commercial real property and other asset based transactions, leasing, construction, development, zoning, capitalization and corporate governance. Liz also has several years of experience in handling state and federal complex civil litigation covering a wide range of issues including breach of contract claims, unfair business practices, shareholder disputes, and landlord-tenant matters.

In addition to practicing law in the private sector, Liz has advised municipalities regarding legal strategy and risk mitigation. She presents complex legal concepts to elected and appointed officials in a manner that is succinct and easily digestible; and, has worked with United States and state of Michigan congresspersons regarding legislative and policy matters.

Liz earned her law and undergraduate degrees from the University of Michigan Law School and the University of Michigan, respectively, and is admitted to practice law in the states of Michigan and New York. She is a licensed real estate broker, and a graduate of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Detroit Class XXXVII.
