Overview

Joel Golden is an attorney in our Estate & Wealth Planning practice group. He represents clients in the administration of estates and trusts of all sizes, including the investment of liquid assets and the administration of real estate investments and closely-held businesses. He offers a complete estate-planning package, which includes planning for divorce, retirement, disability, and death while mitigating taxes and other liabilities and preserving wealth for the future. Working with individuals, families, and business owners, Joel is committed to helping his clients make the right arrangements now to preserve and protect wealth in the future.
