Overview

Marguerite Donahue is an attorney in our Emerging & Growth Business practice group. She has considerable experience representing clients dealing with private equity and venture capital investments along with navigating legal matters affecting business transactions. She has a varied business law skillset focused on advising clients on capital raising, secured and unsecured lending transactions, securities law, mergers and acquisitions and corporate governance. Transactions Donahue has managed include asset sales, stock and membership interest sales, exchange offers and reorganizations.

Marguerite is a former Chair of the Business Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan (2012-2013). She served as a member of the Business Law Section's Ad Hoc Committee on Legal Opinions in Business Transactions, which issued a widely-referenced report on state law matters affecting legal opinions delivered in business transactions.
