

Michelle Rubin

PARTNER

✉ mrubin@jaffelaw.com

☎ 248-727-1431

📍 27777 Franklin Rd., Suite 2500
Southfield, MI 48034

🌐 <https://www.jaffelaw.com/>

Practice Areas

- Estate & Wealth Planning

Education

- Wayne State University
J.D., cum laude
Note and Comment Editor of the Wayne Law Review
- University of Michigan
B.A. in Psychology

Bar Admission

- Michigan

Overview

Michelle Rubin is an attorney in our Estate & Wealth Planning practice group. She works closely with individuals and families to provide personalized solutions to their estate planning, financial planning, and tax planning needs.

Michelle works one-on-one with clients and their advisors to prepare and implement wealth transfer, business succession, charitable giving, and estate planning strategies that effectively and efficiently meet each client's personal and financial goals while providing maximum flexibility for their evolving needs. Michelle is dedicated to mitigating each client's tax obligations while preserving their legacy, both now and into the future.

Significant Matters

- Gift, estate, and generation-skipping transfer tax planning
- Irrevocable trusts, including intentionally defective trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts, qualified personal residence trusts, and irrevocable life insurance trusts, domestic asset protection trusts, and special needs trusts
- Wills and revocable trusts
- Powers of attorney and living wills
- Asset titling and trust funding
- Estate and trust administration

Affiliations

- State Bar of Michigan
- Yad Ezra, Board Member
- Hebrew Free Loan, Board Member

Recognition

- Michigan Super Lawyers Rising Star, 2020
- The Detroit Jewish News "36 Under 36", 2019
- Michigan Lawyers Weekly "Up & Coming Lawyer" 2018