Professional Services Overview

To succeed in business, professional services companies get the most out of their human capabilities. Jimerson Birr's diverse, lively Professional Services Industry Team brings deep industry and functional expertise and a range of perspectives to spark change through leading-edge legal advice and practical business counsel fit for purpose. We work in a uniquely collaborative model across the firm and throughout all levels of the client organization to deliver results that help our clients thrive. Our lawyers help professional services firms to gain an understanding of their exposure, vulnerabilities, and potential losses in order to develop resilience and profitability strategies.

Jimerson Birr's experienced lawyers, combined with our business network, allow us to provide the legal and business support your company needs—wherever you need it, whatever the size of your organization. Uniquely qualified and driven to understand and address the opportunities and challenges specific to professional services companies, Jimerson Birr's approach transforms the obligation of legal problem spotting and problem solving into opportunities for your business. A Jimerson Birr engagement is not a trip to the torture chamber, or exercise in corporate box checking. Instead, our lawyers focus on risks and opportunities – things that matter – and minimize work on what is less relevant.

A Jimerson Birr experience is kinetic, customized, and integrated to deliver insights that inform intelligent, real-time decisions. Our team combines our multi-disciplinary approach with deep, real-world industry knowledge to help clients meet challenges and respond to opportunities. Our service model is centered on offering valuable perspectives as we serve you now and as you grow. Our lawyers have become trusted advisors to some of the most healthy and promising companies in the world, due in large part to a mutually defined goal setting agenda predicated on creating and sustaining value for our clients.

Jimerson Birr's Professional Services Industry Team works with senior leadership across functional areas, applying our legal expertise and commercial acumen to solve their toughest challenges and grasp their greatest ambitions. From new ventures to venerable service firm institutions, the work we do with them is as varied as they are. Covering all disciplines from every angle, Jimerson Birr lawyers tap into our collection of creative, experienced, diverse and authoritative resources to reframe the future for our professional services clients – for today, for tomorrow, and for generations beyond.
