Frank Dylewski is an Associate at Keller Lenkner LLC. His practice focuses on representing clients in arbitrations and class action litigation.

Prior to joining Keller Lenkner, Frank litigated complex commercial disputes at Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP and Kirkland & Ellis LLP. His diverse litigation background includes consumer fraud, breach of contract, professional malpractice, fraud, antitrust, insurance coverage, business torts, and securities matters. Frank has represented plaintiffs and defendants before state and federal courts and in arbitration tribunals across the country. Having litigated a myriad of matters from case inception through final judgment, he is a skilled negotiator and advocates for efficient and amicable resolutions.

While litigating sophisticated high-exposure disputes, Frank has also maintained an active pro bono practice. He received Legal Aid Chicago's Pro Bono Volunteer of the Year Award in 2014 and 2015.

Frank earned his law degree from Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law and received his undergraduate degree in international studies from Bradley University.
