Seth Meyer is a Partner at Keller Lenkner LLC. He represents clients in arbitration and litigation at the trial and appellate levels and has handled cases on a broad array of subject matters, including antitrust, bankruptcy, contracts, class actions, fraud, labor and employment, mergers and acquisitions, product liability, securities, and unfair trade practices.

At Keller Lenkner, Seth acts on behalf of state and local government entities in connection with the opioid crisis, representing the State of Arizona as well as municipalities across Idaho, Minnesota, Nevada, and Wisconsin. In addition to this work, Seth's practice also focuses on various antitrust, class action, appellate, and bankruptcy matters.

Before joining Keller Lenkner, Seth was an attorney at Kirkland & Ellis LLP in Chicago and Williams & Connolly LLP in Washington, D.C. At those firms, he handled trial, appellate, and arbitral matters for companies and sovereigns involving contract disputes, government and internal investigations, mass torts, class action claims, and other issues.

Seth was honored by Crain's Chicago Business as a 2021 Rising Star in Law. He is also listed on the National Trial Lawyers' 40 Under 40 and was named a 2021 Lincoln Fellow by the Claremont Institute.

Seth is an adjunct professor at the Northwestern University Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences Center for Legal Studies, where he teaches an undergraduate course on legal education and practice.

Seth served as a law clerk for Judge Richard F. Suhrheinrich of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he was elected to Order of the Coif and served as In Brief Editor on the Managing Board of the Virginia Law Review. He earned his undergraduate degree in three years, summa cum laude, from Northwestern University where he played violin with the Northwestern University Philharmonia.
