Overview

Biography

Anthony Caserta is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg where he assists in handling matters related to First Property Insurance Defense and General Liability.

Prior to joining the firm, Anthony was an Attorney at a Personal Injury Protection firm where he handled cases through all phases of litigation. Additionally, he spent two years at the Public Defender's Office, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit of Florida, where he maintained a very high caseload and gained invaluable litigation and trial experience. He also has experience in a variety of practice areas including first-party property, contract, family law, real estate, wills, and trusts & estates. Furthermore, he served as the General Counsel for a local restoration company.

Anthony earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Florida and went to earn his Juris Doctor degree from Barry University School of Law. While attending law school, Anthony served as a Judicial Intern for The Honorable Frederick Lauten and a Legal Intern for the Office of the State Attorney, 9th Judicial Circuit of Florida.
