Overview

Biography

Christine G. Soto is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on First Party Property Insurance Defense.

Before joining Kelley Kronenberg, Christine worked as an Attorney representing Fortune 500 companies in general liability, premises liability, products liability, and personal injury matters in state and federal courts throughout Florida. Christine began her legal career defending insurance carriers in litigation and subrogation matters. She also has experience defending auto manufacturers in consumer product warranty cases.

Christine received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism, cum laude, from Florida International University. She then went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from St. Thomas University School of Law, where she was a Staff Editor for the Intercultural Human Rights Law Review and a member of the International Moot Court team. She was also on the Dean's List and received the St. Thomas University School of Law Public Service Award.

While attending law school, Christine served as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Judge Samantha Ruiz-Cohen of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida. She also gained legal experience as a Certified Legal Intern for the Miami-Dade Public Defender's Office.
