

Overview

Biography

Kathryn Koestner is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg where she assists in handling matters related to all aspects of First Party Insurance Defense Litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Kathryn was an Attorney for a Florida law firm where her practice was focused on family law and criminal defense litigation. Kathryn's professional career began as a Small Arms and Artillery Specialist in the United States Army. In this role, Kathryn was involved with weapons manufacturing and testing as well as process analysis and improvements.

Kathryn received her Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice with a minor in Psychology from Nova Southeastern University where she was awarded a 4-year full Collegiate Athletic Scholarship and was a 3-year member of an NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Team who were the Sunshine State Conference Champions. She was also a member of the Criminal Justice National Honor Society and an Academic Leader for the Student Athlete Academic Tutoring program. Kathryn attained many honors including the Academic All-American Achievement Award and the Kenny Drost Academic Achievement Award. Kathryn then went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree from Barry University, Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law where she was an Event Coordinator for the Business and Corporate Law Association and a member of the Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity.

Admissions

- ▶ Florida

Education

- ▶ Barry University, Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law J.D., 2020
- ▶ Nova Southeastern University, B.S., 2009

Certifications

- ▶ Certified Legal Researcher- Lexis Nexis

Practice Areas

- ▶ First Party Insurance Defense

Accolades, Associations & News

Associations

Professional Organizations

▶ Phi Alpha Delta Legal Fraternity, Member

News & Insights

▶ Kelley Kronenberg Adds Four Attorneys Throughout Florida