Overview

Biography

Louis Reinstein is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg. Louis' general litigation practice includes trial and appellate work in all of Florida's state and federal courts. He represents individuals, small businesses, large corporations, and municipalities. Louis enjoys working closely with his clients to make sure they receive the attention they need and the communication they want.

His law practice includes plaintiff and defense work from intake all the way through trial and appeal. His areas of focus include commercial litigation, premises liability claims, medical malpractice, municipal litigation, as well as correctional healthcare, and police professional litigation.

As a Florida Supreme Court Certified County and Circuit Court Mediator, Louis effectively reconciles and resolves conflicts and legal disagreements in a cost-efficient way. He is a trusted neutral who is available to work with the parties to find the most optimal settlement. Louis is available to help you find a resolution in all areas of civil litigation.
