

Overview

Biography

Michael Colgan is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg focusing his practice on First Party Property Insurance Defense.

Michael has extensive experience handling first-party property, general liability and casualty claims from intake through trial and appeal in many jurisdictions throughout Florida. This includes the preparation of over 100 summary judgment motions in response to roof damage, pipe leak, assignment of benefits and subrogation claims and the representation of a large civil rights class action challenging seasonal use zoning regulations. Michael has also represented entities in a variety of business-related disputes, injunctive relief matters, federal civil rights violations, and discrimination cases.

Michael received his Bachelor of Arts degree in East Asian Studies from Yale University. He then went on to earn his Juris Doctor degree from Indiana University School of Law where he served as the Managing Editor of the Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies.

Michael is proficient in German, Japanese, and Mandarin Chinese.
