Overview

Biography

Tiffany Rothenberg is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on Commercial First Party Property Litigation.

Tiffany represents commercial property insurance carriers in complex coverage disputes and bad faith claims. She has successfully secured favorable settlements for commercial carriers on dozens of multi-million dollar claims, many below six figures. Tiffany has experience practicing in state and federal courts in New York and Florida and has litigated both civil and criminal matters from inception through jury trial. Additionally, Tiffany has briefed and presented oral arguments in appellate proceedings. Prior to representing carriers, Tiffany was a trial attorney for The Legal Aid Society in New York City.

Tiffany earned her Juris Doctor from City University of New York (CUNY) School of Law, where she was Vice-President of the CUNY Law Moot Court Team and Staff Editor of the New York Law Review. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and Judaic Studies from the University at Albany (SUNY). While in law school, Tiffany interned for the New York State Attorney General in its Consumer Fraud and Protection Bureau, CUNY Law's Immigrant & Refugee Rights Clinic, and the Legal Aid Society. Prior to attending law school, Tiffany worked as a lobbyist on behalf of non-profit hospitals with the Hospital Association of New York State (HANYNS).
