Overview

Biography

Tracy Newmark is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on Family and Marital Law. Tracy represents clients in all areas of Family Law, including Divorce, Equitable Distribution, Paternity Actions, Time-Sharing, Parenting, Parental Relocation, Child Support, Modifications and Enforcement, Pre/Postnuptial Agreements, Adoption services, and many other issues at all financial and emotional levels, including high-net-worth individuals and high-conflict families. Additionally, Tracy handles Commercial Litigation matters, including business “separations” or business “divorces.” Tracy also represents parties in family law and civil appellate matters and has several published opinions in the First, Second, Third, and Fourth District Court of Appeals of Florida.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg in 2015, Tracy managed and operated her own family law and civil litigation firm and has practiced for over 31 years in South Florida.

Tracy is an experienced and trained family law mediator and is able to mediate matters throughout Florida, either virtually or in offices throughout the state of Florida.

Additionally, Tracy has been a Supreme Court Certified Guardian Ad Litem since 1997 and has been honored by the 17th Judicial Circuit Guardian Ad Litem Program since 2000. She has been appointed by several judges throughout south Florida to act as a Guardian Ad Litem on multiple occasions.

Tracy earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 1986 and went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center, in 1990. Tracy is licensed to practice law in all circuit and county courts in the state of Florida.
