Ruba has served as lead counsel for numerous companies, assisting them in venture capital, corporate finance, private and public offerings and merger transactions. She specializes in representing companies in all phases of initial public offerings, secondary registrations, rights offerings, CMPOS, PIPES, shelf registrations and shelf take downs. She regularly advises companies regarding '34 Act reporting compliance, listings on national securities exchanges and corporate governance matters. She also represents numerous start-up companies as well as real estate funds.

Ruba's extensive history and efficacy in dealing with the SEC consistently has contributed to the success of her clients in meeting critical deadlines and achieving goals when time is of the essence, thus making her services indispensable when it really matters.
