AMY HANDLES RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

Amy has been practicing real estate law since 2009. Her expertise is in residential and commercial real property transactions, including but not limited to real estate closings and litigation, real estate contracts, document, and lease preparation and negotiation. She examines title issues and title insurance in connection with purchase and sale transactions and has handled thousands of residential foreclosure cases from initial title review to post-title curative action. Her experience with both the customer and the lender has given her the ability to understand and appreciate the unique needs of each client.
