

NONPROFIT

J. J. Williams Jr. founded Williams Parker in 1925 with core values of excellence, service, community, and giving back. Nearly a century later, Williams Parker continues to provide counsel to the largest and leading Florida philanthropic and nonprofit organizations and foundations. Williams Parker's nonprofit guidance spans a vibrant array of arts and culture, environment, education, healthcare, human services, and more. Williams Parker assists nonprofits with mission guidelines, bylaws, incorporation, management, organizational structure, tax, and employment matters. Private foundation counsel includes chartering, beneficiaries, annual distributions, grants and gifts, and tax. Professional legal help with estate planning and the funding of a foundation is essential to a philanthropic vision's longevity. Williams Parker ensures that its clients have peace of mind as they pursue their philanthropic goals.

RELATED PRACTICES

- Corporate
- Health Law
- Intellectual Property
- Labor & Employment
- Tax Law