

Nursing Home Defense

Overview

Kelley Kronenberg's Nursing Home Defense Practice Group have extensive experience in defending nursing homes, assisted living facilities, rehabilitation centers, and adult day care claims. Our attorneys vigorously defend allegations of abuse, neglect, injury, wrongful death, and regulatory violations by providing innovative medical and legal strategies. Kelley Kronenberg's Nursing Home Defense attorneys have experience representing clients in matters related to wound care, fall prevention, infectious disease, abuse, and neglect.

Our attorneys are sensitive to the challenges faced in skilled nursing homes and assisted living facilities. We pride ourselves on staying up-to-date with the latest nursing home federal and state regulations so that we can provide our clients with valuable counsel relating to industry standards and to protect the facilities reputation in the community and financial growth.

Our clients trust Kelley Kronenberg to defend them in all nursing home litigation matters because we provide our clients with a thorough, prompt investigation and well-reasoned claims evaluation to ensure our clients have all the information necessary to help them with their pre-suit decision and litigation assessments of the case, whether through settlement, arbitration or litigation.
